

and Conservation Efforts

in Numbers...

Habitat Protection

220km

of fire guards cleared for habitat protection from fire in and outside of Hwange National Park

160 million

litres of water pumped for wildlife every year across our 19 pumps

19

water pumps for over 10,000 elephants and other species in and outside our concessions

€350,000

paid to National Parks, the national institution in charge of wildlife protection

Wildlife Protection

323

patrols conducted in communal and forestry lands bordering national parks

4,569 km

patrolled in communal & forestry lands bordering national parks

292

snares found and retrieved by community wildlife protection scouts

19

community wildlife protection scouts employed and trained from the communities

Water and Food for People

5000

households and their livestock supplied by domestic boreholes, over 80 of which we have drilled & over 100 of which we maintain

500,000

school lunches provided to school children across 13 schools

60 tonnes

of maize meal delivered to communities prior to the rains

3500

households received community food aid to mitigate against drought effects

Education

22,000

textbooks distributed to 69 schools in villages around Hwange National Park

25,000

children benefitted from Imvelo's work with schools

13th

classroom block built in schools bordering Hwange National Park

195

children received bursaries to attend school and have uniforms and supplies paid

Healthcare

27,000th

person treated during our 2019 and 9th-year running Smile and See Safari

1,724

sunglasses were distributed to protect eyes from cataracts and ultraviolet light

740

fluoride applications for school children as part of our preventative dental care work

Over 5,000

toothbrushes were handed out to children and adults in our frontline communities

Over 75%

of our staff, including those in Head Office, come from communities within walking distance of our National Parks or protected Forest Land

JOIN US IN SAFEGUARDING OUR PEOPLE AND WILDLIFE.

CONTRIBUTE

For more information contact:
donors@imvelosafarilodges.com